Foundation	Students engage with a variety of texts for enjoyment. These include ►traditional oral texts, ►picture books, ►various types of stories, ►rhyming verse, ►poetry, ►non-fiction, ►film, ►multimodal texts, and ►dramatic performances. Literary texts that support and extend Foundation students as beginner readers include predictable texts that range from caption books to books with one or more sentences per page. These texts involve straightforward sequences of events and everyday happenings with recognisable, realistic or imaginary characters. Informative texts present a small amount of new content about familiar topics of interest; a small range of language features, including simple and compound sentences; mostly familiar vocabulary, known high- frequency words and single-syllable words that can be decoded phonically, and illustrations that strongly support the printed text. Students create a range of ►imaginative, ►informative, and ►persuasive texts including ►pictorial representations, ►short statements, ►performances, ►recounts and ►poetry.	In the Foundation level, students communicate with peers, teachers, known adults, and students from other classes.		Language variation and change Understand that English is one of many languages spoken in Australia and that different languages may be spoken by family, classmates and community (VCELA164)	* Learning that different languages exist; discussing the various languages encountered in the community and at school; acknowledging the home languages of students who speak another language, and valuing the ability to speak more than one language * Recognising that some texts can include both Standard Australian English and elements of other languages including Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander languages	Literature and context None	None	Listen to and respond orally to texts and to the communication of others in informal and structured classroom situations using interaction skills, including listening, while others speak (VCELY174)	Interacting with others * Listening to, remembering and following simple instructions * Sequencing ideas in spoken texts, retelling well known stories, retelling stories with picture cues, retelling information using story maps * Listening for specific things, for example the main idea of a short statement, the details of a story, or to answer a given question * Participating in informal situations, for example play-based experiences which involve the imaginative use of spoken language * Participating in class, group and pair discussions about shared experiences including shared texts * Asking and answering questions to clarify understanding
				Language for interaction Explore how language is used differently at home and school depending on the relationships between people (VCELA165)	* Learning that language varies according to the relationships between people, for example between parent and child, teacher and student, siblings, friends, shopkeepers and customers * Learning that we use a different tone and style of language with different people * Learning to ask relevant questions and to express requests and opinions in ways that suit different contexts	Responding to literature Respond to texts, identifying favourite stories, authors and illustrators (VCELT170)	* Talking about stories and authors, choosing favourites, discussing how students feel about what happens in stories * Engaging with the humour in some stories and repeating favourite lines, jokes and ideas * Returning to preferred texts and commenting on reasons for selection	Deliver short oral presentations to peers, using appropriate voice levels, articulation, body language, gestures and eye contact (VCELY175)	* Sharing a personal experience, interest or discovery with peers in a semi-formal situation * Using visual cues to practise staying on topic
				Understand that language can be used to explore ways of expressing needs, likes and dislikes (VCELA166)	* Recognising some of the ways we can use speech, gesture, writing and media to communicate feelings * Recognising some of the ways emotions and feelings can be conveyed and influenced by visual representations, for example in advertising and animations	Share feelings and thoughts about the events and characters in texts (VCELT171)	* Talking about stories and authors, choosing favourites, discussing how students feel about what happens in stories * Using art forms and beginning forms of writing to express personal responses to literature and film experiences * Talking about people, events and ideas in texts, enabling students to connect them to their own experiences and to express their own opinions about what is depicted
				Expressing and developing ideas Understand the use of vocabulary in familiar contexts related to everyday experiences, personal interests and topics taught at school (VCELA167)	* Engaging in multiple speaking and listening experiences to build vocabulary * Discussing new vocabulary found in texts * Bringing vocabulary from personal experiences, relating this to new experiences and building a vocabulary for thinking and talking about school topics	Examining Literature Replicate the rhythms and sound patterns in stories, rhymes, songs and poems from a range of cultures (VCELT172)	* Using music and actions to enhance appreciation of rhymes, poems, chants and songs * Reciting rhymes with actions
				Phonics and word knowledge Identify rhyming words, alliteration patterns, syllables and some sounds (phonemes) in spoken words (VCELA168)	* Listening to the sounds a student hears in the word, and writing letters to represent those sounds * Identifying rhyme and syllables in spoken words * Identifying and manipulating sounds (phonemes) in spoken words * Identifying onset and rime in one-syllable spoken words	Creating literature Modify familiar texts (VCELT173)	* Changing familiar texts by innovating on elements of text structure, for example replacing rhyming words or substituting verbs with other verbs
				Blend and segment onset and rime in single syllable spoken words and isolate, blend and segment phonemes in single syllable words (first consonant sound, last consonant sound, middle vowel sound) (VCELA169)	*Putting together and pulling apart onset and rime sounds (phonemes) in spoken words with one syllable, for example st-op, b-ack and in spoken words with consonant-vowel-consonant patterns, for example d-o-g, c-u-p
Foundation Level achievement standard	NOTE: The standards are not divided into sub-strands in the Victorian Curriculum documents. However, logic would dictate that the standards could be put into sub-strands, as demonstrated to the right.			They identify and describe likes and dislikes about familiar texts, objects, characters and events. In informal group and whole class settings, students communicate clearly. They retell events and experiences with peers and known adults.	They can identify rhyme, letter patterns and sounds in words. They identify and use rhyme, letter patterns and sounds in words.	Students understand that their texts can reflect their own experiences.		Students listen to and use appropriate language features to respond to others in a familiar environment.

Level 1

	Students engage with a variety of texts for enjoyment. They listen to, read, view and interpret spoken, written and multimodal texts designed to entertain and inform. These encompass ▶ traditional oral texts including Aboriginal stories, ▶ picture books, ▶ various types of stories, ▶ rhyming verse, ▶ poetry, ▶ non-fiction, ▶ film, ▶ dramatic performances, and ▶ texts used by students as models for constructing their own texts. Literary texts that support and extend Level 1 students as independent readers involve straightforward sequences of events and everyday happenings with recognisably realistic or imaginary characters. Informative texts present a small amount of new content about familiar topics of interest and topics being studied in other areas of the curriculum. These texts also present a small range of language features, including simple and compound sentences, some unfamiliar vocabulary, a small number of high frequency words and words that need to be decoded phonically, and sentence boundary punctuation, as well as illustrations and diagrams that support the printed text. Students create a variety of ▶ imaginative, ▶ informative and ▶ persuasive texts including ▶ recounts ▶ procedures, ▶ performances, ▶ literary retellings and ▶ poetry.	In level 1, students communicate with peers, teachers, known adults and students from other classes.		Language variation and change		Literature and context		Interacting with others
				Understand that people use different systems of communication to cater to different needs and purposes and that many people may use sign systems to communicate with others (VCELA198)	* Recognising how and where signs and symbols are used and placed in students' school and community * Learning some signs in Auslan and finding out about 'Hear a Book' and Braille technologies for hearing and visually impaired people	Discuss how authors create characters using language and images (VCELT205)	* Identifying similarities between texts from different cultural traditions, for example representations of dragons in traditional European and Asian texts, and how spiritual beings are represented in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander stories * Identifying some features of characters and how particular words and images convey qualities of their nature, for example some characters are portrayed as shy, others adventurous * Discussing the characters of fictional animals and how they relate to those of humans	Engage in conversations and discussions, using active listening behaviours, showing interest, and contributing ideas, information and questions taking turns and recognising the contributions of others (VCELY210)	* Listening for details in spoken informative texts * Participating in informal and structured class, group and pair discussions about content area topics, ideas and information * Speaking clearly and with appropriate volume * Interacting confidently and appropriately with peers, teachers, visitors and community members * Learning to value listening, questioning and positive body language and understanding that different cultures may approach these differently * Formulating different types of questions to ask a speaker, such as open and closed questions and 'when', 'why' and 'how' questions
				Language for interaction		Responding to literature		Make short presentation speaking clearly and using appropriate voice and pace, and using some introduced text structures and language (VCELY211)	* Reporting the results of group discussions * Providing simple explanations about how to do or make something * Giving short oral presentations about areas of interest or content area topics, speaking clearly and with appropriate volume and using extended vocabulary and a growing knowledge of content-specific words
				Understand that language is used in combination with other means of communication (VCELA199)	* Recognising the effect of words, symbols, gestures and body language on the way communications are received by others	Express preferences for specific texts and authors and listen to the opinions of others (VCELT206)	* Sharing favourite texts and authors and some reasons for preferences * Discussing different texts and considering what is entertaining or appealing * Using arts methods and role play to express personal responses to characters and events in stories Identifying who is telling the story in different texts
				Understand that there are different ways of asking for information, making offers and giving commands (VCELA200)	* Learning the difference between questions and statements, requests and commands * Learning about different types of questions including closed and open questions and 'where', 'what', 'who' and 'why' questions	Discuss characters and events in a range of literary texts and share personal responses to these texts, making connections with students' own experiences (VCELT207)	* Discussing characters from books and films and whether these are life-like or imaginary (for example talking animals) * Comparing characters and events in texts to students' own experiences
						Examining Literature
				Explore different ways of expressing emotions, including verbal, visual, body language and facial expressions (VCELA201)	* Extending students' vocabularies for the expression of feelings and emotions * Considering how others might respond before students express their views and how students might respond to others' views in civil and constructive ways	Discuss features of plot, character and setting in different types of literature and compare some features of characters in different texts (VCELT208)	* Examining different types of literature including traditional tales, humorous stories and poetry * Discussing similarities and differences between texts (for example features of main characters in different stories) * Discussing features of book settings including time (year, season) and place (country or city, realistic or imagined) * Discussing how plots develop including: beginnings (orientation), how the problem (complication) is introduced and solved (resolution)
				Expressing and developing ideas
				Understand the use of vocabulary in everyday contexts as well as a growing number of school contexts, including appropriate use of formal and informal terms of address in different contexts (VCELA202)	* Learning forms of address for visitors and how to use language appropriately to ask directions and for information, for example on excursions	Listen to, recite and perform poems, chants, rhymes and songs, imitating and inventing sound patterns including alliteration and rhyme (VCELT209)	* Exploring performance poetry, chants and songs from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and Asian cultures * Listening to and performing simple haiku poems about familiar topics such as nature and the seasons
				Phonics and word knowledge
				Identify the separate phonemes in consonant blends or clusters at the beginnings and ends of syllables (VCELA203)	* Clapping the syllables in words and identifying the separate consonant sounds in blends or clusters in each syllable, for example in 'frost' and 'play-ing'
				Manipulate phonemes by addition, deletion and substitution of initial, medial and final phonemes to generate new words (VCELA204)	* Recognising words that start with a given sound, end with a given sound, have a given medial sound, rhyme with a given word * Recognising and producing rhyming words * Replacing sounds in spoken words, for example replace the 'm' in 'mat' with 'c' to form a new word 'cat', deleting the 'f' from 'farm' to form a new word 'arm', and substituting the 't' in 'pet' with 'n' to form a new word 'pen' * Saying sounds in order for a given spoken word (for example f/i/sh, th/i/s)

Level 1 achievement standard

	NOTE: The standards are not divided into sub-strands in the Victorian Curriculum documents. However, logic would dictate that the standards could be put into sub-strands, as demonstrated to the right.			Students listen to others when taking part in conversations using appropriate interaction skills.		Students understand how characters in texts are developed and give reasons for personal preferences. They interact in pair, group and class discussions, taking turns when responding. They can describe characters, settings and events in different types of literature.		They create texts that show understanding of the connection between writing, speech and images. They create short texts for a small range of purposes.	They listen for and reproduce letter patterns and letter clusters. They make short presentations on familiar topics.

Level 2	Students engage with a variety of texts for enjoyment. They listen to, read, view and interpret spoken, written and multimodal texts in which the primary purpose is to entertain, as well as texts designed to inform and persuade. These encompass ▶ traditional oral texts, ▶ picture books, ▶ various types of print and digital stories, ▶ simple chapter books, ▶ rhyming verse, ▶ poetry, ▶ non-fiction, ▶ film, ▶ multimodal texts, ▶ dramatic performances, and ▶ texts used by students as models for constructing their own work. Literary texts that support and extend Level 2 students as independent readers involve sequences of events that span several pages and present unusual happenings within a framework of familiar experiences. Informative texts present new content about topics of interest and topics being studied in other areas of the curriculum. These texts include language features such as varied sentence structures, some unfamiliar vocabulary, a significant number of high frequency sight words and words that need to be decoded phonically, and a range of punctuation conventions, as well as illustrations and diagrams that both support and extend the printed text. Students create a range of ▶ imaginative, ▶ informative and ▶ persuasive texts including ▶ imaginative retellings, ▶ reports, ▶ performances, ▶ poetry and ▶ expositions.	In Level 2, students communicate with peers, teachers, students from other classes, and community members.		Language variation and change		Literature and context		Interacting with others
				Understand that spoken, visual and written forms of language are different modes of communication with different features and their use varies according to the audience, purpose, context and cultural background (VCELA234)	* Identifying examples and features of different kinds of spoken, non-verbal, written and visual communication from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities and from several Asian cultures within Australia, and associating those features with particular communities * Recognising some phrases in the languages of the class and community, for example greetings and expressions of politeness	Discuss how depictions of characters in print, sound and images reflect the contexts in which they were created (VCELT240)	* Exploring iconography of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures * Recognising recurring characters, settings and themes in Dreaming stories experienced through texts, films and online sources * Discussing moral and teaching stories from varied cultures, identifying and comparing their central messages	Listen for specific purposes and information, including instructions, and extend students' own and others' ideas in discussions through initiating topics, making positive statements, and voicing disagreement in an appropriate manner (VCELY244)	* Using spoken language for problem solving, and exploring ideas and concepts * Listening for specific information and providing two or more key facts from an informative text spoken or read aloud * Listening to, remembering and responding to detailed instructions
				Language for interaction		Responding to literature		Rehearse and deliver short presentations on familiar and new topics speaking clearly and varying tone, volume and pace appropriately, and using supportive props (VCELY245)	* Adjusting presentation for different audiences * Preparing and giving oral presentations, including reports of group discussions, using more formal speech and specific vocabulary about content area topics * Listening and responding to presentations, including those using multimedia, on familiar and learned topics, recording key information, and connecting new and existing knowledge about a topic
				Understand that language varies when people take on different roles in social and classroom interactions and how the use of key interpersonal language resources varies depending on context (VCELA235)	* Exploring how terms of address are used to signal different kinds of relationships * Exploring the differences between giving a presentation and talking to friends * Exploring culturally specific greetings and expressions of politeness	Identify aspects of different types of literary texts that entertain, and give reasons for personal preferences (VCELT241)	* Describing features of texts from different cultures including recurring language patterns, style of illustrations, elements of humour or drama, and identifying the features which give rise to their personal preferences * Connecting the feelings and behaviours of animals in anthropomorphic stories with human emotions and relationships * Drawing, writing and using digital technologies to capture and communicate favourite characters and events
				Identify language that can be used for appreciating texts and the qualities of people and things (VCELA236)	* Exploring how language is used to express feelings including learning vocabulary to express a gradation of feeling, for example 'happy', 'joyful', 'pleased', 'contented' * Exploring in stories, everyday and media texts moral and social dilemmas; such as right and wrong, fairness/unfairness, inclusion and exclusion; learning to use language to describe actions and consider consequences * Exploring how language is used to construct characters and settings in narratives, including choice of nouns such as 'girl', 'princess' or 'orphan', and choice of adjectives such as 'gentle', 'timid' or 'frightened'	Compare opinions about characters, events and settings in and between texts (VCELT242)	* Discussing each others' preferences for stories set in familiar or unfamiliar worlds, or about people whose lives are like or unlike their own
				Expressing and developing ideas		Examining Literature
				Understand the use of vocabulary about familiar and new topics and experiment with and begin to make conscious choices of vocabulary to suit audience and purpose (VCELA237)	* Interpreting new terminology drawing on prior knowledge, analogies and connections with known words	Identify, reproduce and experiment with rhythmic, sound and word patterns in poems, chants, rhymes and songs (VCELT243)	* Exploring poems, chants, rhymes or songs from different cultures which class members may bring from home * Learning to recite, sing or create interpretations of poems, chants, rhymes or songs from students' own and other different cultures
				Phonics and word knowledge
				Manipulate more complex sounds in spoken words through knowledge of blending and segmenting sounds, phoneme deletion and substitution (VCELA238)	* Separating and blending more difficult sounds when saying words, for example 'squint' and 'watch' * generating new words by deleting one phoneme and replacing it with another, for example substituting 'b' in 'back' with 's' to make 'sack'
				Identify all Standard Australian English phonemes, including short and long vowels, separate sounds in clusters (VCELA239)	* Listening for and recognising different sounds in words during shared reading and read alouds including short vowels ('a' as in can), long vowels ('o' as in pony) and separate sounds in letter clusters ('s-t-r' in strap)
Level 2 achievement standard	NOTE: The standards are not divided into sub-strands in the Victorian Curriculum documents. However, logic would dictate that the standards could be put into sub-strands, as demonstrated to the right.			They listen for and manipulate sound combinations and rhythmic sound patterns. Students listen for particular purposes.		They explain their preferences for aspects of texts using other texts as comparisons.		They create texts that show how images support the meaning of the text. Students create texts, drawing on their own experiences, their imagination and information they have learned. Students use a variety of strategies to engage in group and class discussions and make presentations. When discussing their ideas and experiences, students use everyday language features and topic specific vocabulary.

Level 3	Students engage with a variety of texts for enjoyment. They listen to, read, view and interpret spoken, written and multimodal texts in which the primary purpose is to entertain, as well as texts designed to inform and persuade. These encompass ►traditional oral texts including ►picture books, ►various types of print and digital texts, ►simple chapter books, ►rhyming verse, ►poetry, ►non-fiction film, ►multimodal texts, ►dramatic performances, and ►texts used by students as models for constructing their own work. Literary texts that support and extend students in Levels 3 and 4 as independent readers describe complex sequences of events that extend over several pages and involve unusual happenings within a framework of familiar experiences. Informative texts present new content about topics of interest and topics being studied in other areas of the curriculum. These texts use complex language features, including varied sentence structures, some unfamiliar vocabulary, a significant number of high frequency sight words and words that need to be decoded phonically, and a range of punctuation conventions, as well as illustrations and diagrams that both support and extend the printed text. Students create a range of ►imaginative, ►informative and ►persuasive texts including ►narratives, ►procedures, ►performances, ►reports, ►reviews, ►poetry and ►expositions.	In Levels 3 and 4, students communicate with peers and teachers from other classes and schools in a range of face-to-face and online/virtual environments.		Language variation and change		Literature and context		Interacting with others
				Understand that languages have different written and visual communication systems, different oral traditions and different ways of constructing meaning (VCELA270)	* Learning that a word or sign can carry different weight in different cultural contexts, for example that particular respect is due to some people and creatures and that stories can be passed on to teach us how to live appropriately	Discuss texts in which characters, events and settings are portrayed in different ways, and speculate on the authors' reasons (VCELT274)	* Reading texts in which Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children/young people are the central characters/protagonists and making links to students' own lives, noting similarities * Exploring the ways that the same story can be told in many cultures, identifying variations in the storyline and in music (for example 'The Ramayana' story which is told to children in India, Indonesia, Thailand, Cambodia, Burma, Laos, Tibet and Malaysia)	Listen to and contribute to conversations and discussions to share information and ideas and negotiate in collaborative situations and use interaction skills, including active listening and clear, coherent communications (VCELY275)	* Participating in collaborative discussions, building on and connecting ideas and opinions expressed by others, and checking students' own understanding against group views
				Language for interaction
				Understand that successful cooperation with others depends on shared use of social conventions, including turn-taking patterns, and forms of address that vary according to the degree of formality in social situations (VCELA271)	* Identifying roles and collaborative patterns in students' own groups and pair work (for example initiating a topic, changing a topic through negotiation, affirming other speakers and building on their comments, asking relevant questions, providing useful feedback, prompting and checking individual and group understanding)			Plan and deliver short presentations, providing some key details in logical sequence, using appropriate tone, pace, pitch and volume (VCELY276)	* Drawing on relevant research into a topic to prepare an oral or multimodal presentation, using devices such as storyboards to plan the sequence of ideas and information
				Examine how evaluative language can be varied to be more or less forceful (VCELA272)	* Exploring how modal verbs, for example 'must', 'might,' or 'could' indicate degrees of certainty, command or obligation * Distinguishing how choice of adverbs, nouns and verbs present different evaluations of characters in texts
				Expressing and developing ideas
				Learn extended and technical vocabulary and ways of expressing opinion including modal verbs and adverbs (VCELA273)	* Exploring examples of language which demonstrate a range of feelings and positions, and building a vocabulary to express judgments about characters or events, acknowledging that language and judgments might differ depending on the cultural context

Level 5	Students engage with a variety of texts for enjoyment. They listen to, read, view, interpret and evaluate spoken, written and multimodal texts in which the primary purpose is aesthetic, as well as texts designed to inform and persuade. These include various types of media texts including ►newspapers, ►film and ►digital texts, ►junior and early adolescent novels, ►poetry, ►non-fiction, and ►dramatic performances. Literary texts that support and extend students in Levels 5 and 6 as independent readers describe complex sequences, a range of non-stereo-typical characters and elaborated events including flashbacks and shifts in time. These texts explore themes of interpersonal relationships and ethical dilemmas within real-world and fantasy settings. Informative texts supply technical and content information about a wide range of topics of interest as well as topics being studied in other areas of the curriculum. Text structures include chapters, headings and subheadings, tables of contents, indexes and glossaries. Language features include complex sentences, unfamiliar technical vocabulary, figurative language, and information presented in various types of graphics. Students create a range of ►imaginative, ►informative and ►persuasive texts including ►narratives, ►procedures, ►performances, ►reports, ►reviews, ►explanations and ►discussions.	In Levels 5 and 6, students communicate with peers and teachers from other classes and schools, community members, and individuals and groups, in a range of face-to-face and online/virtual environments.		Language variation and change Understand that the pronunciation, spelling and meanings of words have histories and change over time (VCELA333) Language for interaction Understand that patterns of language interaction vary across social contexts and types of texts and that they help to signal social roles and relationships (VCELA334) Understand how to move beyond making bare assertions and take account of differing perspectives and points of view (VCELA335)	* Recognising that a knowledge of word origins is not only interesting in its own right, but that it extends students' knowledge of vocabulary and spelling * Exploring examples of words in which pronunciation, writing and meaning has changed over time, including words from a range of cultures * Identifying ways in which cultures differ in making and responding to common requests, for example periods of silence, degrees of formality * Recognising that a bare assertion (for example 'It's the best film this level') often needs to be tempered by: using the 'impersonal it' to distance oneself (for example 'It could be that it is the best film this level'); recruiting anonymous support (for example 'It is generally agreed that it is the best film this level.'); indicating a general source of the opinion (for example 'Most critics agree that it is the best film this level.'); specifying the source of the opinion (for example 'David and Margaret both agree that it is the best film this level') and reflecting on the effect of these different choices	Responding to literature Present a point of view about particular literary texts using appropriate metalanguage, and reflecting on the viewpoints of others (VCELT336)	* Posing and discussing questions, such as 'Should this character have behaved as they did?', and beginning to make balanced judgments about the dilemmas characters face and relative merit and harm	Interacting with others Clarify understanding of content as it unfolds in formal and informal situations, connecting ideas to students' own experiences and present and justify a point of view or recount an experience using interaction skills (VCELY337) Participate in informal debates and plan, rehearse and deliver presentations for defined audiences and purposes incorporating accurate and sequenced content and multimodal elements (VCELY338)	* Asking specific questions to clarify a speaker's meaning, making constructive comments that keep conversation moving, reviewing ideas expressed and conveying tentative conclusions * Planning a report on a topic, sequencing ideas logically and providing supporting detail, including graphics, sound and visuals to enhance audience engagement and understanding
Level 5 achievement standard	NOTE: The standards are not divided into sub-strands in the Victorian Curriculum documents. However, logic would dictate that the standards could be put into sub-strands, as demonstrated to the right.			They use language features to show how ideas can be extended. Students listen and ask questions to clarify content.		They develop and explain a point of view about a text selecting information, ideas and images from a range of resources.		They create a variety of sequenced texts for different purposes and audiences. They make presentations and contribute actively to class and group discussions, taking into account other perspectives.

Level 6	Students engage with a variety of texts for enjoyment. They listen to, read, view, interpret and evaluate spoken, written and multimodal texts in which the primary purpose is aesthetic, as well as texts designed to inform and persuade. These include various types of media texts including ▶ newspapers, ▶ film and ▶ digital texts, ▶ junior and early adolescent novels, ▶ poetry, ▶ non-fiction, and ▶ dramatic performances. Literary texts that support and extend students in Levels 5 and 6 as independent readers describe complex sequences, a range of non-stereo-typical characters and elaborated events including flashbacks and shifts in time. These texts explore themes of interpersonal relationships and ethical dilemmas within real-world and fantasy settings. Informative texts supply technical and content information about a wide range of topics of interest as well as topics being studied in other areas of the curriculum. Text structures include chapters, headings and subheadings, tables of contents, indexes and glossaries. Language features include complex sentences, unfamiliar technical vocabulary, figurative language, and information presented in various types of graphics. Students create a range of ▶ imaginative, ▶ informative and ▶ persuasive texts including ▶ narratives, ▶ procedures, ▶ performances, ▶ reports, ▶ reviews, ▶ explanations and ▶ discussions.	In Levels 5 and 6, students communicate with peers and teachers from other classes and schools, community members, and individuals and groups, in a range of face-to-face and online/virtual environments.		Language variation and change Understand that different social and geographical dialects or accents are used in Australia in addition to Standard Australian English (VCELA362) Language for interaction Understand that strategies for interaction become more complex and demanding as levels of formality and social distance increase (VCELA363) Understand the uses of objective and subjective language and bias (VCELA364)	* Recognising that there are more than 150 Aboriginal languages and two Torres Strait Islander languages and that they relate to geographic areas in Australia * Recognising that all languages and dialects are of equal value, although we use different ones in different contexts, for example the use of Standard Australian English, Aboriginal English and forms of Creole used by some Torres Strait Islander groups and some of Australia's near neighbours * Identify and appreciate differences in language used in diverse family settings * Understanding when it is appropriate to share feelings and opinions (for example in a personal recount) and when it is appropriate to remain more objective (for example in a factual recount) * Differentiating between reporting the facts (for example in a news story) and providing a commentary (for example in an editorial)	Literature and context Make connections between students' own experiences and those of characters and events represented in texts drawn from different historical, social and cultural contexts (VCELT365)	* Recognising the influence our different historical, social and cultural experiences may have on the meaning we make from the text and the attitudes we may develop towards characters, actions and events	Interacting with others Participate in and contribute to discussions, clarifying and interrogating ideas, developing and supporting arguments, sharing and evaluating information, experiences and opinions and use interaction skills, varying conventions of spoken interactions according to group size, formality of interaction and needs and expertise of the audience (VCELY366) Participate in formal and informal debates and plan, rehearse and deliver presentations, selecting and sequencing appropriate content and multimodal elements for defined audiences and purposes, making appropriate choices for modality and emphasis (VCELY367)	* Using strategies, for example pausing, questioning, rephrasing, repeating, summarising, reviewing and asking clarifying questions * Exploring personal reasons for acceptance or rejection of opinions offered and linking the reasons to the way our cultural experiences can affect our responses * Recognising that closed questions ask for precise responses while open questions prompt a speaker to provide more information * Using technologies to collaboratively prepare a humorous, dynamic group view on a debatable topic, such as 'Kids should be allowed to read and view what they like,' to be presented to teachers and parents

Level 7	Students engage with a variety of texts for enjoyment. They listen to, read, view, interpret, evaluate and perform a range of spoken, written and multimodal texts in which the primary purpose is aesthetic, as well as texts designed to inform and persuade. These include various types of media texts including ▶ newspapers, ▶ magazines and ▶ digital texts, ▶ early adolescent novels, ▶ non-fiction, ▶ poetry and ▶ dramatic performances. Students develop their understanding of how texts, including media texts, are influenced by context, purpose and audience. Literary texts that support and extend students in Levels 7 and 8 as independent readers are drawn from a range of realistic, fantasy, speculative fiction and historical genres and involve some challenging and unpredictable plot sequences and a range of non-stereotypical characters. These texts explore themes of interpersonal relationships and ethical dilemmas within real-world and fictional settings and represent a variety of perspectives. Informative texts present technical and content information from various sources about specialised topics. Text structures are more complex including chapters, headings and subheadings, tables of contents, indexes and glossaries. Language features include successive complex sentences with embedded clauses, unfamiliar technical vocabulary, figurative and rhetorical language, and information supported by various types of graphics presented in visual form.	In Levels 7 and 8, students communicate with peers, teachers, individuals, groups and community members in a range of face-to-face and online/virtual environments.	They experience learning in both familiar and unfamiliar contexts that relate to the school curriculum, local community, regional and global contexts.	Language variation and change Understand the way language evolves to reflect a changing world, particularly in response to the use of new technology for presenting texts and communicating (VCELA391)	* Exploring languages and dialects through building webcam relationships with schools across Australia and Asia * Investigating changes in word use and meaning over time and some of the reasons for these changes, for example the influence on spelling and vocabulary of new forms of communication like texting, emoticons and email	Literature and context Identify and explore ideas and viewpoints about events, issues and characters represented in texts drawn from different historical, social and cultural contexts (VCELT393)	* Building knowledge, understanding and skills in relation to the history, culture, and literary heritage of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples * Identifying and explaining differences between points of view in texts, for example contrasting the city and the bush or different perspectives based on culture, gender or age	Interacting with others Identify and discuss main ideas, concepts and points of view in spoken texts to evaluate qualities, using interaction skills when sharing interpretations or presenting ideas and information (VCELY395)	* Identifying, discussing and interpreting ideas and concepts that other individuals and groups value * Identifying key evidence supporting an argument in a discussion between two speakers
				Language for interaction Understand how accents, styles of speech and idioms express and create personal and social identities (VCELA392)	* Building a database of local idioms and their meanings, accents and styles of speech for different contexts, exploring the possibilities of these choices in drama and role play, and discussing their connection with personal and social identities * Developing dialogues authentic to characters in comics, cartoons and animations	Responding to literature Reflect on ideas and opinions about characters, settings and events in literary texts, identifying areas of agreement and difference with others and justifying a point of view (VCELT394)	* Exploring concepts about the criteria for heroism and testing these criteria in a range of texts, including more complex ones where the hero may be flawed * Establishing forums for discussing the relative merits of fiction and film texts * Comparing personal viewpoints on texts and justifying responses in actual and virtual discussions	Plan, rehearse and deliver presentations, selecting and sequencing appropriate content and multimodal elements to promote a point of view or enable a new way of seeing, using body language, voice qualities and other elements to add interest and meaning (VCELY396)	* Preparing a presentation combining print, visual and audio elements to explore and interpret ideas, drawing on knowledge and research about perspectives different from students' own
Level 7 achievement standard	NOTE: The standards are not divided into sub-strands in the Victorian Curriculum documents. However, logic would dictate that the standards could be put into sub-strands, as demonstrated to the right.			Students listen for and explain different perspectives in texts. They understand how the selection of a variety of language features can influence an audience.				They create texts showing how language features and images from other texts can be combined for effect. They create texts structured and coherent texts for a range purposes and audiences. They make presentations and contribute actively to class and group discussions, using language features to engage the audience. They understand how to draw on personal knowledge, textual analysis and other sources to express or challenge a point of view.
